Silly Hamtaro

In was a horrible wet day, so Hamtaro ran for shelter in an abandon house. The house was tall and old looking, (well tall for a Hamster, it was about 40cm tall). All the windows were smash and the front door was of its hinges. Its never sunny around this house. As Hamtaro ran into the house he could see nothing. It was pitch black, but suddenly the house lit up. Hamtaro then knew he wasn't alone. He then try to run back out, but the door magically fix it self and slam shut. Hamtaro then hear a terrible high pitch scream like someone is dieing. Hamtaro at this point was petrified. As Hamtaro was looking around for away out, he saw a ghost. The ghost wanted Hamtaro to follow him. So because Hamtaro is a little hamster with big adventures, (well that's what the song says) he stupidly followed the ghost. The ghost took him into a room which had cob webs everywhere. The ghost then stab him to death in a blink of an eye and chuck him in a pot to have Hamster Stew. (yum yum.) We had a good time today and tomorrow will be even better because Hamtaro's dead. Yaaa
